Team AQT Travels: I must say I was fortunate to travel to Ukraine and Philippines with you as our travel & event partner. It was a flawless and commendable trip. Each and every small element of the trip was well planned which is often ignored by travel managers. Top of all it was your personal assistance and care which me and my colleagues received which made the trip stress free and joyful. Amongst all my abroad trips, the ones with you are really memorable. Thanks a lot. Please keep it up. All the best.

RAJ PALRIWAL

Distributor - Bihar, Jaquar Group

SG has been working with AQTv for more than twenty years now. During our first meeting, my understanding as I recall was the words "AQTv" standing for Always Quality Timeliness Value.

We have had wonderful years of working with the parent company on all these parameters -- and it was but natural for us to try out what its sister concern AQT Travels had to offer.

Must say the last Annual Dealer Meet organised and coordinated by your team was very well appreciated by our Dealers who you would agree from experience are not an easy bunch to please. The level of detailing and planning was remarkable and the few improvement areas suggested were taken in the right spirit. Wish all luck to the wonderful team at AQT Travels and hope to see the new business achieving greater heights !!

Our company Somany Ceramics, recently worked closely with AQT Travels along with its sister concern AQT Events, in organising a 3 Day conference in Hong Kong & Macau for 130 People; as well as a 4 day corporate event in Crowne Plaza Rohini for our All India Gold Class members. Their keen visualisation and execution skills came into play by presenting us with stunning decor and stage design for our events. "Yogesh Banga of AQT travels has supported us for Jaquar Delhi/NCR dealer incentive trips to south east and Europe for the last consecutive six years speaks itself for the services level provide by him and satisfaction level at our end. It is his personal involvement from the stage of making the trip and taking care of each and every member of the group has created the difference between AQT and other tour operators.

The best thing which we all like of Yogesh Banga is that he is flexible in case there is a change in itinerary and he makes sure that people are happy and all of them enjoy the trip. I personally on behalf of my dealers wish him all the luck and success in his business and our support in future business."

The team at AQT did an outstanding job at designing & executing our 3-day conference in Surajkund, Delhi. With full-fledged themed conferences during the day and glittering gala nights in the evenings. The team worked tirelessly and gave us three beautiful days. And the best thing is that they made our job easy by understanding our brief perfectly and were very proactive in suggesting additional creative ideas for the event.
